Using the Worksheet:

1. This worksheet is ideal for presentation to your spouse during the negotiation process. It acts as a "memorandum of understanding" regarding what you have or have not agreed upon regarding your separation and/or divorce.
2. This worksheet can also be provided to your attorney, so he or she has the relevant information and your expressed desires. Delivering this information in an organized fashion will often save in legal fees and provide much of what your lawyer will need to initiate and complete your divorce case.

Our upgrading feature inside your account delivers your divorce documents on time along with your step-by-step filing procedures. This is an ideal solution if you want to do your own divorce.

Changing Your Answers:

Changing your answer to a question is very easy. Simply locate your question in the "Question History" pull down menu and click the "Back" button to the right of the menu. This will take you to that specific question at which point you can change your answer and click the "Save Answer" button. Please keep in mind that changing answers to certain questions may prompt you to answer additional questions. These additional questions would follow in sequence should it be required. There is also a "editable version" of the Separation Agreement provided, which can be downloaded to your computer and opened in MSword for easy changes and additions. Using the "editable version" will provide the maximum control over the contents of your separation agreement, but please be advised that you may need to format the document to your liking.
